Who delivers Puppygrams?

Great Plains SPCA trained staff and volunteers will arrive with your puppy and facilitate all interactions.

When will Puppygrams be delivered?

When you reserve your Puppygram, you will indicate the best date and time that works for you. We will contact you within two business days to confirm your Puppygram and will make our best efforts to accommodate the date and time you requested, but may need to work with you on scheduling.

How do I adopt a Puppygram puppy?

Puppies will be made available for adoption after Puppygram delivery on a schedule determined by GPSPCA (usually within a few days). You may put a hold on a puppy after your Puppygram if the puppy is not yet available. No holds will be done during the Puppygram session.

To put a hold on a Puppygram puppy, you may:

- Come to the shelter at 5424 Antioch Drive.
- Call GPSPCA at 913-831-7722. Choose the Adoptions option from the phone menu.
- Email adoptions@greatplainspca.org. Mention that you met the puppy during your Puppygram.

To adopt a Puppygram puppy, you must come to the shelter:

- Adoption hours are Monday and Tuesday by appointment or Wednesday through Friday, 11:00am to 7:00pm and 11:00am-7:00pm. GPSPCA does not guarantee that the puppy you met for your Puppygram will be available for adoption or that the puppy does not already have a hold by another party. All adoption and hold fees apply and are in addition to the donation you make to receive the Puppygram. The adoption fee for puppies is $350.
